Gainesville, Fla. | October 18, 2014 | 7:00 p.m. ET

THE STORYLINE

- The Florida football team hosts Southeastern Conference Eastern Division rival Missouri in The Swamp in Week 8.
- The Gators and Tigers are meeting for just the fourth time; Saturday marks their second clash at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium.
- UF won the previous contest in Gainesville, a 14-7 decision on Nov. 3, 2012.
- The Gator offensive line has allowed just 5.0 sacks, which is tied for the SEC lead and tied for ninth nationally.
- The Gator offense has shown great efficiency in the red zone through four games, converting 19-of-20 trips inside the opponent's 20-yard line into points.
 - o UF has scored 11 touchdowns in the red zone this year, with an additional eight trips resulting in field goals.
- Florida's punting units have been outstanding this season, as the Gators lead the nation in punt returns while ranking 11th nationally and second in the SEC in punting.
- Florida's plus-four turnover margin is tied for fourth in the SEC and tied for 15th nationally.
- UF's lines have proven to be stout in pass protection on offense and in quarterback pressures on defense, as the Gators are second in the SEC in sacks for (3.20 per game); their 5.0 sacks allowed are tied for the fewest in the league.
- Tailback Brandon Powell emerged as a reliable passing target with six catches against LSU.
 - o The freshman's six receptions are tied for the fourth-most in a single game by a Gator running back since 1996, and his six grabs are the most by a Gator at his position since Chris Rainey had six against Florida Atlantic on Sept. 3, 2011.
 - o Powell recorded the most catches by a UF running back in a conference game since Markus Manson had six against Vanderbilt on Nov. 5, 2005.
 - o The Deerfield Beach native posted the most catches by a UF true freshman in his position group since the aforementioned performance by Manson against the Commodores.
- A strong run defense has seen the Gators allow just 21 double-digit runs this year, which is 17th in the nation.
- Florida's defense is forcing six three-and-outs per game, which is tied for the SEC lead (Mississippi State) and ranks tied for sixth nationally.

LAST TIME OUT

Colby Delahoussaye bombed a 50-yard field goal with three seconds to play, giving LSU a 30-27 victory over UF at The Swamp.

The game-winner was made possible after Tigers defensive back Rickey Jefferson grabbed a tipped-ball interception off UF quarterback Jeff Driskel, who tried to throw a slant pass to slot receiver Latroy Pittman. Jefferson returned the ball 23 yards to the UF 36. The Tigers ran one off-tackle handoff, spiked the ball and then called on Delahoussaye.

Florida had three turnovers in the game (which led to 10 LSU points), a dropped touchdown pass in the fourth quarter and a third-down defensive breakdown in defeat.

Twice late in the fourth quarter, the Gators appeared on the verge of icing the game. After Driskel threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Demarcus Robinson with 6:10 to go for a 24-20 lead, the UF defense forced LSU into a third-and-25 situation, only to allow Travin Dural to race past the secondary for a 41-yard reception.

That breakdown was compounded by an illegal hands-to-the-face personal foul, which put the Tigers at the Florida 12. Two plays later, LSU quarterback Anthony Jennings lobbed an 11-yard touchdown to Dural on a fade route over cornerback Brian Poole. Dural made the catch to give LSU a 27-24 lead with only 2:40 to go.

Before those two consecutive completions for 53 yards, Jennings had hit just eight of 18 attempts for 58 yards.

On the very next play from scrimmage, though, Driskel hit Robinson for 73 yards to the LSU 2. Consecutive runs were stuffed on first and second downs and a third down pass was dropped in the end zone. The Gators had to settle for a Frankie Velez 18-yard field goal with 1:51 remaining to tie the game 27-27.

The defense then forced a three-and-out, with the Gators getting the ball at their 42 with 54 seconds remaining and knocking on the door of game-winning field-goal position. UF reached the LSU 45, but that's where Driskel was picked off.

IT'S GREAT TO BE A FLORIDA GATOR.

FROM THE LAST GAME

- UF had mounted a 74-yard, game-tying drive beginning at the 2:40 mark of the fourth quarter and ending with 18-yard field goal by Francisco Velez.
- The game-tying drive began with a 73-yard completion from Jeff Driskel to Demarcus Robinson.

- Andre Debose opened the scoring with a 62-yard punt return for a touchdown in the first quarter, marking his first career score on a punt return.
- The score was Debose's second punt return of 50+ yards this season; entering Saturday, six players in the country had multiple 50-yard returns this year.
- Debose now is tied for third all-time in SEC history with five combined kick- and punt-return touchdowns.
- Jeff Driskel rushed for 71 yards, marking his first 70-yard game on the ground since Nov. 10, 2012, when he had 76 yards against Louisiana.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

2013 | No. 14/14 Missouri 36, No. 22/22 FLORIDA 17 (Columbia) Florida's offensive struggles continued Saturday in a 36-17 road loss at unbeaten Missouri. Redshirt freshman Maty Mauk, making the first start of his career, passed for 295 yards against the Southeastern Conference top-rated defense, placekicker Andrew Baggett tied a school record with five field goals and UF quarterback Tyler Murphy was punished and panicked all day as the 14th-ranked Tigers dominated the No. 22 Gators at Faurot Field. In losing for the second straight week on the road, the Gators (4-3, 3-2) gained just 151 yards of total offense and now have scored just one touchdown the last two games. UF lost 17-6 last weekend at LSU, managing just two field goals. Murphy was under siege the entire game, with the Gators mostly helpless in the running game (31 carries, 59 yards) and the offense providing no time in pass protection. Murphy finished 15 of 29 for 92 yards and an interception against a Missouri (7-0, 3-0) defense that was perpetual attack mode during the entire sun-splashed afternoon. Murphy was sacked six times and hit a bunch more. Florida's best offensive output of the game came on a six-play, 70-yard drive that true freshman tailback Kelvin Taylor capped with a all-out effort 21-yard touchdown run, the first score of his career. Taylor finished with 74 yards on 12 carries. The rest of UF's rushing attack totaled 15 yards on 19 carries.

2012 | No. 8/8 FLORIDA 14, Missouri 7 (Gainesville) Florida rallied in the second half for the fourth time this season, edging SEC newcomer Missouri, 14-7, at The Swamp. Mike Gillislee took a short pass from Jeff Driskel and went 45 yards for a touchdown with 13:32 remaining for the winning score. The Gators picked off James Franklin four times on the day. Florida (8-1, 7-1 SEC) rallied for 14 second-half points, getting a 36-yard touchdown run from Omarius Hines in the third quarter in addition to Gillislee's game-winning touchdown. The Gators trailed Missouri (4-5, 1-5 SEC), 7-0, at the half after the Tigers capitalized on a Gillislee fumble in UF territory, getting a 1-yard touchdown run by Kendial Lawrence. Midway through the second quarter, Lawrence then carried it in from a yard out to give the Tigers a 7-0 lead late in the first half. Early in the second half, the Gators lined up in the Wildcat with Trey Burton under center and Hines went around the right side and raced down the sideline for a 36-yard touchdown to tie the game. Missouri marched 12 plays and 68 yards all the way down the Gators' 7-yard line on the ensuing drive but Loucheiz Purifoy blocked Andrew Baggett's 25-yard field goal attempt and the game remained tied. Franklin then overthrew a wide open receiver over the middle and Matt Elam intercepted Franklin at the 4-yard line and returned it 42 yards to the UF 46-yard line. The Gators appeared to take the lead on a 43-yard pass from Driskel to Frankie Hammond but a holding penalty negated the score. Two plays later, however, Driskel dumped off a short pass to Gillislee, who weaved his way through the Missouri defense and into the end zone from 45 yards out to give Florida the 14-7 win.

1966 Sugar Bowl | No. 6 Missouri 20, FLORIDA 18 (New Orleans) With the Gators trailing 17-0 at the half, and 20-0 in the third quarter, junior quarterback Steve Spurrier and Florida made a run in the fourth quarter that came up just short. Gary Lane put Mizzou ahead with a 59-yard drive in the second quarter and Charlie Brown scored on a 16-yard run. Missouri took command when Johnny Roland connected on a halfback pass to Early Denny for a 14-0 lead. Bill Bates kicked a 27-yard field goal before the half, then hit a 34-yard try in the third quarter for a 20-0 lead. Finally, Spurrier threw a 22-yard touchdown to Jack Harper to get the Gators on the board. Coach Ray Graves sent in instructions to go for two points, but the pass was off target. Missouri fumbled the ensuing kickoff and the Gators recovered at the 10-yard line, giving the Gators hope. Spurrier ran it in from the 2, but Harper threw an incomplete halfback pass on the attempted two-point conversion. After forcing Missouri to punt, the Gators began a drive at their own 19-yard line. After driving to the Missouri 21, Spurrier connected with Charlie Casey in the end zone. Florida failed to convert the two-point attempt once again, and the Gators trailed just 20-18 with 2:08 remaining, but the Tigers ran out the clock to end the game. In the fourth quarter, Spurrier led the Gators to three touchdowns in 11 minutes of play. In final period alone, he completed 16-of-23 passes for 198 yards and two touchdowns, and rushed for another score. Prior to the game, the Sugar Bowl completion record for an entire game had been 17, set by Davey O'Brien in 1939.

CROSSING PATHS

- Missouri has 10 players on its roster from the state of Florida. UF does not have any players from Missouri.
- Head Coach Will Muschamp beat Missouri twice while he was the defensive coordinator at Texas (2008-09). In a 41-7 win in Columbia in 2009, the Longhorns held the Tigers to 173 total yards (74 rushing/99 passing).

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The University of Florida is the only school in the Southeastern Conference to have two inductees into the NFL Hall of Fame since 2001. Former Gator running back Emmitt Smith was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, on Aug. 7, 2010, following Gator great Jack Youngblood into the elite fraternity.

A three-time All-American at UF from 1987-89. He set 58 school records in three seasons, including a career rushing mark of 3,928. Following his junior season with the Gators, Smith was a first-round selection in the 1990 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. He finished his career with 18,355 rushing yards and 164 rushing TD, both of which are NFL records. He was named honorary captain for the 2011 UF vs. Tennessee game.

Youngblood, regarded as the best defensive end in UF history, became the first Gator enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2001. He was named to the All-SEC team of the decade for the 1970s and was the Most Outstanding Player at the 1971 Senior Bowl. He went on to be a five-time All-Pro player for the L.A. Rams. Youngblood appeared in a Rams' record 201 consecutive games and only missed one game in his 14 seasons, that one coming in his final season in 1984.

UF'S LEGENDARY STATUS

NATION'S ELITE

- No other school has captured a national title while facing the nation's toughest schedule. According to NCAA statistics, Florida has done so twice, in 1996 and 2006, and also won the 2008 title facing the second-toughest schedule in the country.
- UF is one of two schools (Arkansas) to face a top-10 strength of schedule five times from 2006-12.
- Florida is one of three schools in the nation to win three outright national titles since 1990. The 2006 and 2008 national championships were decided in the BCS National Championship Game, and Florida was the unanimous pick in all four major polls in 1996. Alabama (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012), Florida State (1993, 1999, 2013) and Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997) have also won more than two national titles in that time frame, but the Huskers' 1997 title was split with Michigan.
- Florida is one of only two schools in the nation with three quarterbacks to win the Heisman Trophy and one of two schools nationally to have multiple Heisman winners since 1996.
- Florida is the only school in the nation to post 100 wins during each of the last two decades. UF won 102 games in the 1990s and 100 games in the 2000s. UF is one of only three schools in NCAA history to win 100 or more games in two different decades.
- The Gators won at least nine games for a period of 12-consecutive years (1990-2001), something only three schools in major college history have done and no other SEC school has done.
- Florida became one of six schools in major college history to win 100 games during a decade, producing a 102-22-1 record in the 1990s. UF again reached that benchmark in the 2000s, going 100-30.
- UF is the only school in modern major college history to score 500 or more points for a period of four-straight years (1993-96).
- Florida is one of two schools to have a player selected in the first round of the NFL Draft for nine-consecutive years, with a Gator being tabbed each year from 1983-91 (Miami, 14 years, 1995-2008).
- UF is one of only four schools in the nation to have multiple recipients of the William V. Campbell Trophy (formerly the Draddy Trophy), which is presented by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame to the nation's top football scholar-athlete. (Brad Culpepper, '91; Danny Wuerffel, '96; Tim Tebow, '09)
- UF is the only school in the nation to have a Heisman Trophy recipient who also received the Campbell Trophy. Wuerffel accomplished both in 1996, while Tebow earned the Heisman in 2007 and the Campbell in 2009.

SEC ELITE

- Florida is one of two SEC schools to have three Heisman Trophy winners: Steve Spurrier (1966), Danny Wuerffel (1996) and Tim Tebow (2007).
- UF is one of two SEC schools to win at least 10 games for a period of six-consecutive years (1993-98), something only four schools in major college history have done.
- The Gators are the only SEC team to rank in the top 15 of the final polls for 12-straight years, and only four have done it in major college football history.
- The Gators have the best league record over a 100-SEC-game span, going 87-13 in SEC play from the beginning of the 1990 season through the seventh conference game of 2001.
- Florida is only one of two schools in SEC history to claim four league championships in a row (1993-96). Florida has played in 10 of the 21 SEC Championship Games that have been held, winning seven.

HEAD COACH WILL MUSCHAMP

Muschamp, 43, came to UF after being the coach-in-waiting and defensive coordinator at the University of Texas since November 2008. He brought 16 years of coaching experience with him, including 12 years in the SEC, eight as a coach and four as a player at the University of Georgia. Muschamp also served as defensive coordinator at Auburn University (2006-07) and LSU (2002-04; he was LSU's linebackers coach in 2001) and was a finalist for the 2007 Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach.

Muschamp also brought a wealth of big-game experience. Prior to arriving at Florida, he coached in two national championship games, winning the ultimate prize in 2003 as the defensive coordinator at LSU, and coached in a third BCS bowl game following the 2008 season, when Texas won the Fiesta Bowl. In addition to his national championship past, Muschamp has coached in the SEC Championship Game twice and in the Big 12 Championship Game once, coming out on the winning side in each of those three contests.

After a 7-6 record in his first season at Florida, Muschamp led the Gators to one of the nation's top turnarounds in year two, finishing 11-2 and playing in a BCS bowl game. Florida improved from a 6-6 regular season in 2011 to an 11-1 regular season in 2012, which marked the biggest one-year leap for the program in 32 years (0-10-1 in 1979, 7-4 regular season in 1980). In addition, the Gators finished 7-1 in the SEC East, tying for the division crown, a year after posting a 3-5 record in the conference. Florida defeated three top-10 opponents for just the second time in school history. Muschamp was named the SEC Coach of the Year by the league's coaches as well as CBSsports.com.

The Gators finished No. 3 in the final regular-season BCS standings in 2012, the third-highest finish in school history, and ranked in the top 10 in both the final Associated Press and USA Today/Coaches' Poll. UF won 11 games for the sixth time in school history, won four of five games against the final BCS top-12 teams and beat seven bowl-eligible teams against the toughest schedule in the nation according to the NCAA.

In his first three seasons at UF, the formula for the Gators' success was to take care of the football, control both lines of scrimmage, finish games, have outstanding special teams and a physical defense. The Florida defense continued to be one of the nation's best in 2012, ranking fifth nationally in scoring defense (14.5 points per game) and total defense (287.5 yards per game). UF's rush defense improved dramatically from year one under Muschamp, limiting opponents to just 94.9 rushing yards per game after allowing 132.7 yards per game in 2011. The secondary also shut down the opposition, ranking as the nation's No. 2 pass efficiency defense (95.55) and allowing just seven touchdown passes, the second-fewest in the nation.

A year after being outscored 86-59 in the fourth quarter, UF posted a 128-32 edge in the final quarter in 2012. That led to a 5-1 record in games decided by one score or less and matched a school-record eight come-from-behind wins. UF improved from -12 in turnover margin to +15 and ranked seventh nationally. Punter Kyle Christy set a school record for average yards per punt, placekicker Caleb Sturgis finished his career as Florida's leader in career field goals made and the special teams unit blocked six kicks in the last eight games.

Muschamp's first season in Gainesville produced the school's 24th-consecutive winning season and its 32nd-consecutive season of .500 football or better, the longest streaks in the nation. With the victory over Ohio State in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl, UF established a school record with its fourth-straight bowl win. Muschamp's first squad will go down as one of the youngest in school history: 15 true freshmen and 52 underclassmen saw action — the second most in school history.

Despite returning 37 combined starts on the defensive side of the ball, the fewest in the SEC, Muschamp's defense ranked second in the nation in third down conversion defense (.273) — the best national ranking in school history. Florida allowed just 166.8 yards per game passing to rank seventh nationally and permitted just 299.5 yards per game to rank eighth nationally.

In his five seasons as an SEC defensive coordinator, Muschamp's defenses ranked among the nation's top 10 in total defense every single year, while always maintaining a top-15 rating in scoring defense, including three times inside the top 10.

In four of his eight seasons overall as a Division I defensive coordinator, his teams allowed less than 100 rushing yards per game and twice led the nation in rushing defense while yielding less than 75 rushing yards per game. His 2003 LSU defense led the country by allowing 67 yards per game on the ground, the best mark by an SEC team in the 2000s, while Texas gave up just 73.1 yards on the ground in 2009 to lead the nation.

From 2008-10 under Muschamp's guidance, the Texas defense ranked No. 1 in the nation with 119 sacks for 949 yards lost. His unit also ranked in the top-10 nationally during the same time frame in several other major categories, allowing 2.9 yards per rushing attempt (third), 96.7 rushing yards per game (fourth), 297.4 yards per game (seventh), all of which are Big 12 bests during that span.

In 2009, the Texas Longhorns advanced to the BCS National Championship Game as Muschamp's defense gave up just 73.1 rushing yards per game, the best figure by any BCS school from 2008-10. The Longhorns also led the nation in 2009 in third-down defense (26.5 percent), turnovers created (37, tied with Ohio University) and interceptions (25) as Texas claimed the Big 12 championship in 2009.

Under Muschamp's tutelage at Texas, Brian Orakpo claimed the 2008 Rotary Lombardi Award (lineman of the year), Bronko Nagurski Trophy (most outstanding defensive player) and Ted Hendricks Award (top defensive end), while the Longhorns' defense saw Sergio Kindle become the first player in college football history to be named a finalist for both the Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker) and the Hendricks Award (nation's top defensive end). Earl Thomas also earned finalist honors for the Jim Thorpe Award in 2009.

In the 2009 and 2010 NFL Drafts, Muschamp had a combined 10 players drafted, including nine in the first four rounds and two first-rounders in Orakpo and Thomas.

As the defensive coordinator at Auburn from 2006-07, Muschamp's defense ranked third in the nation in scoring defense (15.4 points per game) and fourth in the nation in pass defense (170.7 pass yards per game). During the same time frame, Auburn ranked third in the SEC in total defense by holding opponents to 295.1 yards per game.

Muschamp's first full-time coaching experience in the SEC came at LSU as the linebackers coach for the 2001 season before being elevated to defensive coordinator from 2002-04. His 2003 defense helped the Tigers to the national championship by leading the nation both in scoring defense (11.0 points per game) and total defense (252.0 yards per game), while finishing second nationally in pass efficiency defense (89.8) and third in rushing defense (67.0 yards per game). The Tigers allowed just 19 touchdowns all season in 2003, three less than the next closest competitor nationally.

Between his positions at LSU and Auburn, Muschamp spent a season with the NFL's Miami Dolphins in 2005 as Assistant Head Coach for Defense. He helped the Dolphins finish second in the league with 49 sacks, while leading Miami to top-10 rankings in yards per play (4.7, seventh), yards per rush (3.7, seventh) and yards per pass (6.0, ninth).

The 1994 graduate of Georgia moved immediately into coaching following his collegiate playing career, working as a graduate assistant at Auburn from 1995-96, earning his master's degree in 1996. He became a secondary coach at West Georgia (1998) and Eastern Kentucky (1999) before moving on to his first defensive coordinator position at Valdosta State for the 2000 season.

In his playing career at Georgia, Muschamp earned his way from walk-on to scholarship player by the spring of his redshirt freshman season and eventually was named co-captain for his senior season. He also earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1993.

FLORIDA VS. IDAHO - Declared no contest

August 30, 2014

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL

University of Florida Athletics Director Jeremy Foley and University of Idaho Athletics Director Rob Spear have agreed that Saturday night's game has been declared a no contest and that not rescheduling the game is the only viable option for both programs.

The two schools, however, have agreed to schedule a game in Gainesville for the 2017 season on a date to be determined later.

"We looked at a number of options and, in the end, we both thought it was in the best interest of our student-athletes and football programs to play out the remainder of our respective schedules as they stand," Foley said.

Florida will fulfill the terms of the contract between the two schools and pay Idaho its $975,000 guarantee by February 1, 2015, as outlined in the agreement.

"I want to thank UF, especially AD Jeremy Foley, for the professional and first-class way they worked through this issue and the focus on student-athlete welfare," Spear said. "It was not in our best interest to play 10 consecutive weeks without a bye week. We look forward to our return to Florida in 2017."

FLORIDA 36, KENTUCKY 30 (3OT)

September 13, 2014

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL (Attendance: 88,334)

In a thrilling night game in The Swamp, the Gators outlasted the Wildcats in the first triple-overtime game in school history, 36-30. Matt Jones plunged in from one yard out in the third overtime period to secure the victory after Kentucky's Austin MacGinnis missed a field goal in the first half of the third overtime period. The star of the night was sophomore wide receiver Demarcus Robinson, who tied a school record with 15 catches in the game, totaling 216 yards (4th-most in school history) and two touchdowns. Robinson's 15 catches matched Carlos Alvarez's school record set back in 1969 against Miami. Jeff Driskel rebounded after a shaky first half to finish with a career-high 295 yards and three scores. Meanwhile, the Florida defense stuffed the run and came up with key turnovers to shut down the Wildcats passing attack late in the game. Safety Keanu Neal had two interceptions, including a pick with 28 seconds remaining in regulation to prevent Kentucky from getting into field goal range for a chance to win. Brian Poole also had an interception and broke up a key pass in the second overtime period on a ball thrown into the end zone to hold UK to a field goal.

NO. 2/3 ALABAMA 42, FLORIDA 21

Bryant-Denny Stadium | Tuscaloosa, AL (Attendance: 101,821)

After a back-and-forth first half that saw the two teams combined for five turnovers, Alabama took control late in the third quarter. Coming out of halftime down 21-14, the Gators' Antonio Morrison intercepted a tipped pass and returned it to the Alabama 16 yard line. Two plays later, Jeff Driskel ran it in to tie the game 21-21. The Crimson Tide answered emphatically, with a 16-play touchdown drive that lasted over seven minutes and drained the UF defense. On the ensuing drive, the Gators offense couldn't get anything going and the Florida defense was forced back on the field. The Tide sustained another long drive to go up two touchdowns. Alabama continued to pound away at the tired Florida defense in the fourth quarter and added another score, as Amari Cooper hauled in his third touchdown catch of the day. The Crimson Tide offense finished the day with 645 yards, the most ever allowed by a Gator team. Bama quarterback Blake Sims finished a career-best day with 445 yards and four touchdown passes. Florida's offense meanwhile only mustered 200 yards on the day as they had trouble staying on the field, converting only 2-of-13 third down attempts.

FLORIDA 10, TENNESSEE 9

Neyland Stadium | Knoxville, TN (Attendance: 102,455)

A stellar defensive effort and some late offense helped Florida come-from-behind on the road to beat Tennessee for the 10th-straight year. After being held scoreless through the first three quarters, true freshman quarterback Treon Harris entered the game and led the Gators on two scoring drives to give UF a 10-9 victory. The defense did their part all afternoon, limiting the Vols offense to just three field goals and 233 total yards of offense. Tennessee entered the red zone a total of four times on the day and totaled only 9 points as the Gator defense held strong. Running back Matt Jones paced the offense with his second 100-yard game of the season, totaling 114 yards on 23 carries and scoring Florida's only touchdown of the day. Kicker Austin Hardin nailed a career-long 49-yard field goal with 6:20 remaining in the game that proved to be the game winner. Bryan Cox, Jr., had a career day with 3.0 sacks to lead a pass rush that totaled six in the game. The defense limited Tennessee to just 28 total rushing yards on 29 carries on the day.

LSU 30, FLORIDA 27

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL (Attendance: 88,014)

LSU kicker Colby Delahoussaye hit a 50-yard field goal with three seconds remaining as the Tigers escaped with a narrow win over the Florida Gators in Gainesville, 30-27. After a back-and-forth second half, the score was tied 27-27 when Jeff Driskel's pass was tipped and intercepted by Rickey Jefferson and returned to the Tigers' 36 yard line with 24 seconds left on the clock. LSU was able to gain three yards and stop the clock, setting up Delahoussaye's game winner. Florida opened the scoring in electric fashion, as Andre Debose returned a punt 62 yards for his fifth-career kick return touchdown (first punt return touchdown). LSU responded just over two minutes later with a 12 yard touchdown run by freshman Leonard Fournette, who totaled 140 yards on 27 carries and added a second score in the third quarter to give LSU its first lead of the day. Driskel finished with 183 passing yards and one touchdown, which gave UF a lead with 6:10 left in the game. Driskel also led the team with 71 rushing yards on 21 carries and scored on a nine yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The Gator defense limited LSU to 110 passing yards, but gave up 195 yards on the ground and three rushing touchdowns. For the first time on the season, UF did not force a turnover; meanwhile Florida turned it over three times.
